

British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

Application for a Postgraduate and Early Career Scholars Bursary

This application form is for a) postgraduate students enrolled on a programme of PhD or equivalent study at a higher education establishment whose papers have been accepted for presentation at the BSECS Conference, or b) an early career member of BSECS who has submitted their PhD thesis in the last five years and who does not currently hold a full-time academic job in a college or university, nor any permanent position that supports academic research and whose paper has been accepted for presentation at the BSECS Conference.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Name
Address
E-mail Address:
Telephone:
Fax:

PROFESSIONAL INFORMATION

Institutional Affiliation
Topic of PhD Research
Your PhD Supervisor
Please list publications, if any, up to a total of four

THE TITLE OF YOUR PAPER

(Please note: your paper must already have been submitted to the BSECS conference website)

--

If you have previously received a postgraduate bursary from BSECS, please say in which year(s)
--	--

--

FURTHER INFORMATION

Please explain, in no more than 250 words, how attendance at the BSECS conference will benefit your academic career. Please also include details of any additional funding received or applied for in order to support your attendance at the BSECS conference.

--

Signature		Date
-----------	--	------	--

Return this form to Helen Williams: postgrad@bsecs.org.uk
Address: 024 Lipman building, Northumbria University, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE1 8ST, UK.